Alexander C. Colden, Alexander Calder, Mary Ann Calder, William Calder and others.

Ann Calder, William Calder and others.

The object of his bill is to obtain payment of he sum of one hundred and twenty seven dollars and ninety-one bents, with interest thereon from the 20th day of September 1803.

The bill states that heretofore, in virtue of a decree of this court, the real estate of one William Subey was sold for the payment of his debts; that the companiant amongst others, filled his claim with the vouchers thereof, against said real estate, but the same being informal, it was on the 9th day of July 1803, agreed between the complaint in orders interested in said estate, that the complaint in should file a bill of complaint in order to try the validity of his said claim; and that the other creditors of Slubey, whose claims were then established, should be permytted to draw their proportions of the proceeds upon their respectively giving of the proceeds upon their respectively giving bond with surety to refund what he or she should so draw, with interest, to satisfy the pro-portion that should be die from such person to the complainant on the establishment of his claim or of any port thereof. That in pursu-ance of said agreement, the auditor reported an account, whereby the sett proceeds of said sale were apportioned amongst said creditors, exclusive of the complainant: And the same was confirmed, and the proceeds directed to be paid over upon the claimants giving bond as re quired by the agreement. That by said account a certain William Embleton was madentitled to receive the sumply two hundred and entitled to receive the sumplif two hundred and twenty-three pounds, eight shillings and six pence current money, and gave bond, with a certain James Parker as his surety, and with condition as required by the said agreement; which bond was approved on the 26th day of September 1803, and on that day he received the said sum of money. That the complainant in pursuance of said agreement filed his bill in this court, and it was thereon bruceeded so that on the 1st day of December 1825, the auditor reported sondry accounts when by said Emble on the 1st day of December 1825, the auditor reported sundry accounts wheneby said Emble ton's proportion of the complainants claim is stated to be one hundred and twenty seven dollars and ninety one cents, and that said accounts were subsequently confirmed by order of the Court of Chancery, and said order was afficient by the Court of Appears for the Eastern Shore. That said Embleton is dead, having made his will, whereby he desired all the residue of his real and personal estate to the said James Parker, who was asselled executor residue of his real and personal estate to the said James Parker, who was assoled executor thereof. And that said James Parker by his last will devised the residue of his real and personal estate to his wife Cathrine Parker, and his niece Mary Cosden since married to the defendant Wulliam Thomas, of John. That Cathaine Parker is since dead, leaving certain of the defendants her heirs at law, if whom the said Alexander Calder. Mary Ann Calder wed. said Alexander Calder, Mary Ann Calder and william Calder are non residents. And the complainant charges that the estate of said Embleton and Parker in the hands of all and every of the defendants is chargeable with his said claim.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this or der to be inserted in one of the newspapers at Appapolis at least once in each of t cessive weeks before the sixth day of March next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the substance and object of this bit, in order that they may appear in this court of orbefore the fifth day of June next to answer the premises, and shew cause if any they why a decree should not pass as prayed.
